COMMUNITY TRAININGS SET ACROSS REGION

Learn More About Engaging Your Community

The Houston-Galveston Area Council, along with the Coordinating Committee of local governments, non-profit agencies and educational and research organizations, is developing a Regional Plan for Sustainable Development. As part of that plan development, we are hosting community training opportunities across the region. These workshops will offer participants the chance to learn about widening the base that their organizations reach and how to effectively communicate and engage participations. Participants will also learn about free and interactive tools to help with their communication and engagement efforts.

This free training is open to the public and will be repeated six times at various locations in the region:

Monday, August 6, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Ripley House Neighborhood Center, 4410 Navigation Boulevard, Houston, Texas

Tuesday, August 7, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Wharton Civic Center, O'Quinn Room, 1924 N. Fulton Street, Wharton, Texas

Wednesday, August 8, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Angleton Recreation Center, 1601 N. Valderas Street, Angleton, Texas

Wednesday, August 8, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Lone Star Convention Center, Bluebonnet Ballroom, 9055, Airport Road, Conroe, Texas
